NEW BUSINESS:

- 2. To discuss the Master List of Park Amenities

Assistant City Administrator MacFarlane shared an update on the Park Amenity List webpage and potential advertising. MacFarlane asked the Commissioners for their input and ideas on where to place the QR codes.

Chair Spangler proposed adding the signs to existing structures. He also added that he would seek additional input from Public Works staff on which sign type they may prefer.

Commissioner Vukelich informed the Commission about a plastic based laminated sign that he had seen previously. Commissioner Vukelich also shared that it would be nice to see some additional color on the sign.

Chair Spangler stated that the signs could also be placed in public areas such as the Wyoming Library and City Hall.

Commissioner Bergan suggested that the Commissioners look for specific sign spots within the parks that each of them had been assigned.

3. To discuss fitness equipment at Little Verges Park

Assistant City Administrator MacFarlane stated that Staff had reached out to local park vendors regarding receiving information on fitness equipment for Little Verges Park. He showcased the two proposals and catalogues that were received.

Commissioner Vukelich questioned if the equipment was designed to be utilized year-round or if it would need to be removed in the winter.

Commissioner Bergan stated that they liked some of the options that were presented but would like more information. Suggested local community outreach and including access to survey in local fitness centers.

Chair Spangler shared that they would like to see input from the local community similar to how Fireside Park's community outreach was conducted. Chair Spangler added that Staff should look into possible community partnerships for funding.

4. Future Park Planning

Assistant City Administrator MacFarlane provided an update on future park planning related to Verges Park, Liberty Ponds, and other general areas of need.

Chair Spangler thanked Assistant MacFarlane and stated that the shared information was valuable to have.

Commissioner Bergan shared that a resident had recently asked them about the potential to add additional disc golf baskets to other parks.

COMMUNICATIONS:

Park Steward Updates

Bergan – Ashton Park looks good, Lion's Park and Tolzmann Park are showing their age.

Spangler – Fireside grass has come in nicely; all of their parks are looking great.

Vukelich – Centennial Park's memorial has a broken piece, the wooden board at Hawk Meadows is fixed, and Railroad Park is looking good.
