4. Highway 8 Economic Strategic Plan

City Administrator Linwood and Chisago County HRA/EDA director Nancy Hoffman discussed the completed plan and highlighted it. The purpose of the Highway 8 Strategic Framework is to help guide future development, as well as public and private investment along the entire corridor in Chisago County. The framework process included evaluating how proposed and potential highway improvements will impact or support future retail, industrial, and residential development. The Strategic Framework is also intended to promote collaboration among the corridor communities and demonstrate the corridor-wide support for highway improvements.

In order to be a comprehensive and effective framework plan, this document addresses both the needs of the overall corridor as well as the unique needs of the individual corridor communities. At the project onset, the Project Team conducted background research to gain an initial understanding of the corridor and proposed improvements. The Project Team then held a series of meetings with corridor communities and project partners, both as a group and individually, before drafting design and implementation recommendations.

Background Information:

With the beginning of a new year and having some new members on our board I have attached the following documents for reference:

- Wyoming EDA Mission Statement
- Wyoming EDA Strategic Plan
- Chisago County Strategic Plan

No action is needed from the board, these are simply for your reference as we work through the year.

Wyoming Economic Development Authority Mission Statement

The Mission Statement for the Wyoming Economic Authority is to retain current and attract new commerce and industry to the City of Wyoming; allowing the City to maintain and grow it's long term economic tax and employment base. This is to be accomplished by providing a proactive approach for building a rapport with the current business community as well as developing a strategic plan to attract new business. Secondly the EDA wishes to provide a variety of housing choices and housing opportunities in order to sustain and enhance the economic vitality and quality of life in the City of Wyoming.

The City of Wyoming Strategic Plan

Summary

The Wyoming Economic Development Authority, with the assistance of the City Council and Planning Commission, completed a process in early 2017 to develop a strategic plan to help guide the community as it reinvigorates the activities for continued development. Through a series of meetings, the City has developed the following list of goals for the City. These goals will be periodically reviewed and as they are accomplished it is anticipated that new and different goals may take their place. The goals are currently listed in no specific order of importance but are reflective of the vision of the Economic Development Authority for the community. Specific actions are listed after each goal to allow for the City to develop an implementation plan for those goals and action steps.

GOAL 1:

Enhance Sense of Destination, Identity, and Community

- Develop and implement zoning districts to foster a centralized business district.
- Develop a comprehensive plan that supports the development of a centralized business district.
- Identify and promote the development of business areas that complement the existing businesses and currently occurring development patterns.
- Develop a plan to create an identity of a business friendly community.

GOAL 2:

Enhance Wyoming Partnerships & Communications

- Develop a clear and comprehensive communication plan with other advisory groups in the community (i.e. Planning Commission, Wyoming Area Business Association, etc.).
- Scheduling of regular meetings between groups to discuss the issues and plans for future development in the community. Many communities encourage this by placing signs on properties that are currently being considered for development or a land use change.
- Look to other organizations to develop partnerships (County EDA, Initiative Foundations, etc.) to assist with the promotion and development of the community.
- Refine processes to develop new projects in the community.
- Develop or enhance relationships while working with other organizations to provide for long-term infrastructure improvement projects.

GOAL 3:

Develop Financial Support & Plans for Development Needs

- Develop a strategy and policy to assist new development projects.
- Review and update development costs to align with area development costs.
- Identify the process and areas that city infrastructure will be extended to promote development.
- Develop and implement a plan for the control of funding for proposed infrastructure improvements.
- Develop a process for how proposed projects are handled that is inviting and inclusive for developers. Develop complete list of tasks to facilitate permitting and approvals.

GOAL 4:

Develop Population & Workforce Development Plan

- Complete a housing study to determine the types of homes that may be currently lacking in the community.
- Work with local businesses to understand and determine their long-term workforce needs.
- Collaborate with the local school district to improve outcomes for students and enhance employment opportunities in the community.

GOAL 5:

Strategic Allocation & Innovative Marketing of Land

- Identify partners to help assist the community in marketing possible new industrial park land.
- Identify available properties that meet the development strategies for the City both residential and commercial/industrial.
- Identify the barriers to the successful marketing of the City and work to remove those barriers.
- Maintain an effective and responsive website to allow for developers and residents to get accurate and up to date information about the community.

A Plan for the Future

The City of Wyoming's strategic plan includes goals that improve the identity of the city and develop the community's natural assets and potential. Wyoming's ultimate goal is to enhance the quality of life of the community and attract new business while retaining current industry and business. This strategic plan will support the City with the realization of the community's aspirations and goals.

The Wyoming Economic Development Authority's (EDA) role is to retain current and attract new businesses to the City of Wyoming. Much of this goal can be accomplished by fostering relationships with current businesses and developing strategies to attract new businesses.

The following strategic plan was developed through a workshop. Workshop participants had a focus on the next 10 years (2017- 2027). Members of the City Council, Wyoming EDA, Business Community, Chisago County, City Staff, Planning Commission members and other stakeholders participated. The plan is subject to change as needed. A goal for the workshop was to be inclusive of many ideas, interests, perspectives, and opinions. The workshop also focused on the importance of partnerships between government, business, and residents. Participants developed "partnership principles" that the City of Wyoming will use to support engagements with regional partners and residents.

A Respect for the Past

The first settlers arrived in Wyoming in 1855. They were six German and Dutch families from Pennsylvania, shortly joined by families from Chicago and St. Paul. They named the site “Wyoming” because it reminded them of the Wyoming Valley in Pennsylvania. “Wyoming” is an Algonquin word for “large plains” or “extensive meadows”. Many descendants of the original settlers still thrive in the area. The spot where the first structure was built is marked by a memorial stone. It’s in a small park on the southeast corner of 270th Street and Felton Avenue. In those days, it would have overlooked the Sunrise River, just to the North. When Wyoming was founded, there were only 225 houses in St. Paul.

Wyoming was the first stop on the stagecoach route from Rice Street in St. Paul to Duluth. The house where travelers stayed overnight still exists. After the era of the stagecoach, the same travelers’ house served as a train crew house when the St. Paul & Duluth Railroad Company laid tracks down the old stage road.

Today

The City of Wyoming boasts acres of land designated for parks and open spaces. The Minnesota State Demographer released data in July of 2016 that the 2015 population for Wyoming is 7,877 and 2,794 households. The City has farmer markets, community events, annual festivals, and the Hallberg Center for the Arts. The City of Wyoming is located in close proximity to the Minneapolis – St. Paul Metro Area and provides a perfect balance of small town feel and close to big city amenities.

A growing community with a low crime rate and miles of parks and open spaces, Wyoming is a great place to live. Whether you come for a visit or stay a lifetime, the City of Wyoming is a welcoming community with a thriving economy, and is truly a great place to live and work.

The City of Wyoming Economic Development Vision

Polaris Industries

Economic Development Vision Statement:

A vision statement focuses on the future and is a source motivation. A vision statement does not describe today's reality. The statement describes the future and hopes to help motivate and focus change.

Regionally Located Business Friendly and Family Orientated Community.

The City of Wyoming is recognized as a leader of innovative marketing strategies that account for a wide variety of local retail, commercial, and industrial business. The city leverages regional partnerships, supports strategic land allocation, and creates business friendly policies. The city thrives through family oriented amenities, a vibrant identity & centralized gathering places.

The following identified strategic goals for Wyoming are not listed in a particular order of priority. After review and discussion, the strategic planning team and other key stakeholders may prioritize goals, and identify the order of actions steps and completion.

STRATEGIC GOAL:

Enhance Sense of Destination, Identity, and Community

This Section in Brief: New developments should complement existing development and infrastructure assets. The City will evaluate new projects with a preference given to developments that build on Wyoming's existing assets. The City will create a collaborative environment, working with the business community and other community organizations to identify partners for developing activities and events.

The City of Wyoming will be developed in way that helps create a centralized area to support local retail shopping and community gathering. One or more centralized gathering places can create a sense of community identity and create a sense of destination to draw together the community. Wyoming's identity reflects the residents and should support a brand. The city's brand can then be used as a powerful tool for recruiting development and residents. As this brand continues to evolve, more will know where Wyoming is located and why it's a special community.

There is an ongoing need to develop and communicate a more connected plan for the community that accounts for Goodview Park and Downtown retail as centralized destinations for the growing community. Wyoming can begin to develop a coordinated approach that pursues developments that align with the community vision, centralized locations, and community interests.

The intersection of Viking Boulevard East and Forest Boulevard is a good location to explore centralized retail development. Proposals for retail, leisure and office development outside of plans can be assessed for their impact on current and future destination centers. New developments should complement existing retail facilities and preference can be given to retail developments that are well connected to City plans.

Goodview Park is another good example of a destination for the community. The park is one of the largest and newest parks in the City of Wyoming. It has various amenities for family activities and community gatherings. Focusing on Goodview Park can enhance recreation, further develop a vibrant identity, and support family friendly amenities. A centralized park also creates opportunities for resident gatherings that support area businesses. Stagecoach Days is an example of how we can create plans that will connect the park to downtown activities and area business.

Creating fun, safe, and unique recreational and community events can be a collaborative effort with residents, government, and businesses that further support the Wyoming identity. Area businesses and government can work together to take advantage of existing parks, events, and natural resources to attract families and foster relationships within the community. The City of Wyoming will work with the business community to identify volunteers and partners for developing activities and events.

Activities and events can take advantage of Wyoming's existing community strengths, identity and assets. City events and assets can be presented in informational packages for potential residents and developers.

Family and recreational events may include:

- Concerts
- Art festivals
- Street dances
- Library events
- Block parties
- Bike, blades, and boards rodeo
- Kids recreational competitions
- National Night Out
- Many, many more!

STRATEGIC GOAL:

Enhance Wyoming Partnerships & Communications

This Section in Brief: Wyoming will strive to include the public and key stakeholders in meaningful interactions that provide opportunities for discussions between government committees and residents in the community.

The City of Wyoming will aspire to bring partners and residents together to enhance communications through public and intergovernmental efforts. Getting public “buy-in” will need to go beyond informing residents and businesses that a plan exists. The community will need to be involved in the decision before there is ownership and support. This means Wyoming will strive to include the public and area businesses in meaningful interactions that provide opportunities for learning and relationships between government committees, area businesses, and residents. This can include exploring issues with area businesses and residents that are not always comfortable.

Effective relationships with residents, regional partners, area businesses, and various committees can create clarity in shared interests, create buy-in and reduce doubt in plans. Wyoming will work towards increasing community familiarity with the breadth of perspectives and views that exist. The City will need acceptance from multiple perspectives to support city endeavors. More specifically, Wyoming will increase efforts to have more meetings where multiple committees meet to discuss issues. The city will work to spread input from boards and committees, make members feel more a part of government, and develop collaboration strategies to bring different functions together on tasks. For example, the planning commission is now working on gathering information for planning efforts that can be used by the EDA.

Wyoming may also explore better use of existing facilities to support community activities. Community gatherings could include:

- Public meetings for citizens on various issues.
- City leadership listening sessions
- Social meetings
- Housing local clubs and volunteer activities
- Rental for private family functions or parties.
- Non-church elements of weddings, funerals etc.
- Passing on and retelling local history
- Local non-government activities

STRATEGIC GOAL:

Develop Financial Support & Plans for Development Needs

This Section in Brief: The development of the plan should include simplicity and to reflect the collective community wisdom about trade-off decisions. Public officials, residents, and developers will need to consider infrastructure cost, asset utilization, budgetary constraints other key information to provide the basis for the plan.

The City will continue to work to strike a balance between the needs of residents and businesses. As more industrial and commercial businesses make Wyoming home, this can create jobs that attract residents and drive more retail business. At the same time, attractive housing areas are also important for potential residents.

The City of Wyoming may need to enhance community support to deliver on development plans. Available planning information and data can be a foundation for balanced development. As a community, public officials, residents, and developers will need to consider infrastructure costs, asset effectiveness, budgets, tax structure, laws, regulations, and other information to provide direction for future funding plans.

A special series of meetings between the Wyoming EDA, City Council, residents, and stakeholders is a starting point to discuss needs and enhance financial transparency. By bringing everyone together to look at resources and potential strategies, the City can create buy-in. This special group can study financial scenarios, development opportunities, strategic parcels of land, potential budget constraints, and critical budgeting decisions that support development. Communicating about future needs and financial constraints can be critical for developers and residents confidence.

A goal for the City of Wyoming is a business friendly environment. A financial plan should discuss the City's ability to make operations cost effective, participate financially in development, and create transparency around future spending requirements. A budget typically requires investment "tradeoffs" that can lead to challenging decisions. The City can have a large number of requests for investments that are unfunded. During this financial planning process, Wyoming will strive to be careful that information sources and data are effective for communication. For example,

City comprehensive plans can support investment “tradeoffs” discussions through providing objective information on future needs.

Wyoming’s can also explore the existing fee system. This assessment includes how fees and rates compare to other surrounding communities. A goal is to support greater understanding about how important an adequate fees system is for future developments. For example, development costs may be more or in line with other communities. Wyoming could be competing for a developer’s investment. An analysis of the fee system is a good start and can help support community decisions on system quality.

Public input into city-related financial planning is an important facet of buy-in during the planning process. Many residents will never aim to be experts in City financial planning. A goal in developing the plan should be simplicity and to create some community wisdom about tradeoff decisions.

STRATEGIC GOAL:

Develop Population & Workforce Development Plan

This Section in Brief: Wyoming will work to develop a plan that allows for the attraction and retention of community members and workforce to allow for the continued development of the City. The plan would include the identification and development of the amenities that are important to both residents and businesses.

Wyoming is home to over 100 businesses, large and small, who are proud to have roots in this City. Wyoming is conveniently located off of I-35 allowing for an optimal trade and creates a unique regional commuting ability that is ideal for employees.

More population can encourage development. Population levels can attract a wide variety of local, retail, commercial and industrial businesses. Understanding why families move to Wyoming is important in developing a recruiting strategy.

A community research study may be helpful in our strategy development. Developing greater understanding about how residents define quality of life enhances Wyoming's ability to recruit residents, provide family amenities, and create a vibrant identity that is attractive to potential residents. The City of Wyoming is interested in sending the correct message. For example, many communities believe families move to communities because of strong school districts. Wyoming could be focusing on good schools, but the real reason residents moved to the area could be for the rural atmosphere or many other reasons. Good schools educate our children, and encourage stability to the local real estate and development market. However, including other Wyoming strengths into marketing materials may give residents that extra push to become a part of the community.

Attracting population and new workforce also involves developing a better understanding of the housing market. There is currently a county-wide housing study that Wyoming is participating. This participation, and the update to Wyoming's comprehensive plan will provide housing data. Housing data can create understanding in the types of families that are interested in Wyoming housing stock. The real estate market could lack housing stock, and rental real estate, to meet current & demand. Closely watching housing needs is recommended to fill gaps in housing demands and supply (available market). Ongoing housing studies can support strategy to encourage real estate development for new and existing residents.

STRATEGIC GOAL:

Strategic Allocation & Innovative Marketing of Land

This Section in Brief: Wyoming is rich in land and has an opportunity to create efficient relationships between land owners, developers, and the City. Creating greater understanding of the natural and infrastructural assets of Wyoming will allow for the strategic marketing of the community.

The City of Wyoming is rich in land. There is an opportunity to foster relationships between land owners, potential developers, and strategic City investments. A goal is to create greater understanding of the types of developers that may be interested in Wyoming's available land. This can support more the development of more effective relationships and partnerships.

Wyoming will explore ways to enhance focus on community development. Currently land is purchased and developed without strategic marketing. Land can be organized and promoted to align with other City plans and interests.

The City will work to become armed with key data and information for potential developers. Data and information can include strategic parcels of land the City would like to promote. For example, if Wyoming is interested in “mixed use” developments, an assessment of available property can be completed. This assessment can then support the identification of potential developers to promote the property.

The City can also explore showcasing Wyoming assets that satisfy developers' objectives and minimize their potential concerns. This can include showing developers plans for support and flexibility.

A potential developer may also need more detailed information. They will want to be aware of any challenges for a specific site. The City can strive to be an expert at communicating about the availability and challenges for parcels. The City can develop a complete list of tasks to facilitate permitting and approvals. The City can also work to fill any educational gaps regarding requirements that developers may have.

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

In August/September 2020, the Chisago County HRA-EDA engaged Northspan to conduct a strategic planning process. The goals of the process were to clarify and/or identify the following:

- Practical Vision
- Mission
- Strategic Directions for next 5 years
- Outcomes/Accomplishments by which the strategic directions are achievable

The HRA-EDA, over the course of three sessions and with input from many local partners, developed the following vision, mission, and strategic directions:

VISION:

We are a natural resource for economic growth.

MISSION:

Fostering a high quality of life and thriving communities in Chisago County by collaboratively providing resources for residents and businesses.

STRATEGIC DIRECTIONS:

1. Positioning the county for continued business growth
2. Clarifying a countywide growth strategy
3. Developing affordable housing options
4. Coordinating broadband development

This document provides an overview of the new strategic plan, which will guide the HRA-EDA's work for the next five years. Details on the planning process and supporting documents from that process are available in the appendices.

OVERVIEW

The Chisago County HRA-EDA has long worked to provide housing and provide economic development services to the businesses and residents of Chisago County. It has sought to guide the county's steady population and business growth, recognizing that housing and business growth move in tandem. It coordinates with the county's local units of government to prepare sites for development and ensure communities have the necessary infrastructure to support it, and it has emerged as a statewide leader in the development of broadband. It operates six multi-unit housing developments and has commissioned studies and a toolkit to further local understanding of housing. The HRA-EDA is also a Small Business Development Center (SBDC) satellite office.

The HRA-EDA currently has two staff members and a five-member board of directors, plus two county commissioner liaisons and one alternate. It works with staff from the county's ten cities, nine townships, three chambers of commerce, and four school districts to guide economic development and provide support when necessary.

The HRA-EDA frequently updates an annual operating plan, but it has not revisited its vision or mission or commissioned a broader strategic plan since its current executive director arrived. This plan seeks to provide that foundation for longer-term planning for HRA-EDA activities. Its timing, coming amid a world-changing pandemic and several shifting economic trends in the area, primes the HRA-EDA for a fresh response to the challenges and opportunities it faces.

..... BACKGROUND INFORMATION

With its location on the edge of the Minneapolis-St. Paul metropolitan area, access to distinct natural amenities, and location on the I-35 corridor, Chisago County has enjoyed steady growth in recent decades. Its incomes are among the highest for a Minnesota County outside of the Metro, and its poverty rate is among the lowest. Education and health care are the leading employment sectors in the county, and it enjoys strong clusters in transportation and manufacturing, all of which have grown over the past decade. It has experienced limited to no new multifamily housing development.

Chisago County faces some economic and demographic challenges, including an aging population and the outward commute of many residents to jobs outside the county. Commuter data and survey work shows that many residents travel outside of the county for higher-paying or more specialized jobs in other locations. The housing market is more affordable than the Metro but more expensive than most of Greater Minnesota, and single-family homes dominate the market, with a low rental vacancy rate. New housing development, while steady, has not rebounded to levels that precede the 2008 financial crisis.

In recent years, the Chisago County HRA-EDA has had several major areas of focus, including:

1. BROADBAND

- a. Assisted Sunrise Township and Fish Lake Township with successful Border to Border broadband grants and bonding to fund fiber to the home. Nessel Township now also has fiber to the home. Now working with Chisago Lake and Franconia Townships.
- b. Assisted with feasibility grants from the Blandin Foundation for Chisago Lake, Franconia, Lent, and Sunrise Townships, which provided information to apply for a state Border to Border grant.
- c. $75,000 Blandin Broadband Community grant for projects providing access, education, promotion of broadband and the Internet. Now participating with the Chisago Lakes Area on another Blandin Community Program grant.

2. BUSINESS DEVELOPMENT

- a. Regularly meet with businesses to retain them and build relationships
- b. Assist roughly 25 businesses per year through the Small Business Development Center (SBDC)
- c. Work with businesses to access funding through banks, gap funding lenders, and state programs such as Job Creation Fund and Minnesota Investment Fund
- d. Tax abatement for nine businesses since 2011

3. BUSINESS COVID-19 ASSISTANCE

- a. Worked with businesses to access state and federal relief programs
- b. Online presence classes and one-on-one sessions
- c. Subrecipient of Chisago County CARES Act funding; providing small business relief grants

4. CITY ASSISTANCE

- a. Assist cities in the county with Small Cities Development Program grants
- b. Invested in 7 industrial parks in the county; assist with marketing
- c. Assist cities with funding and research for redevelopment sites
- d. Provide resource referrals and project assistance for cities as requested
- e. Assisted with initiating the ABC Competition in the Chisago Lakes Area as well as assisting with many of the projects that were accomplished through fiscal agency, funding, and grant writing.
- f. Assisted in program development and helped fund three cities with a Downtown Façade program
- g. Worked with the City of North Branch to have the eligible area on north side of the city successfully designated as an Opportunity Zone
- h. Assisted in funding studies and marketing

5. HOUSING DEVELOPMENT

- a. Commissioned Comprehensive Housing Needs Assessment and Housing Toolkit for county; funded by HRA-EDA, Minnesota Housing, Minnesota Housing Partnership, and the Initiative Foundation
- b. Own and manage 7 housing complexes for seniors and low-income residents. Recently sold one facility and received another into ownership (currently being rehabilitated)
- c. Started the Property Assessed Clean Energy (PACE) program in the county; first use for housing development in Lindstrom
- d. Working to create a housing trust fund for workforce housing

6. MARKETING

- a. Connect with realtors through MNCAR, LOIS, Real Estate Journal Events, and advertisements
- b. Created a monthly newsletter for Realtors, businesses, partners, and local residents to market development sites for housing and business
- c. New website launched with new branding
- d. Actively participate in regional organizations such as GreaterMSP and GPS 45::93 to market the county along with larger geographical areas for further outreach

7. EDUCATION

- a. Working with partners, provide training opportunities for business and/or city leaders including:
 - i. Lenders Breakfasts
 - ii. Succession Planning
 - iii. Employment Law
 - iv. How to be prepared for a site selector
 - v. Others as opportunities arise.

8. LABOR FORCE

- a. Partnered with DEED and surrounding communities to provide Job Fairs until we did not have the numbers of job seekers. Now we support the Career Events.
- b. Spearheaded a job fair and school tours of the facilities for Manufacturer's Week. The Governor and DEED Commissioner attended.
- c. Conducted a Commuter Survey to better understand where the people commuting out of the county are going and investigate how to attract those businesses here

9. TOURISM

- a. As a team, created the Old Hwy 61 Coalition, to promote business and communities along Old Hwy 61 in Chisago, Pine, and Carlton County.
- b. Created and shared the documentation to create the Chisago Lakes Visitor Bureau and lodging tax to promote tourism in the Chisago Lakes Area. Now into its second year.
- c. Participate in the North Woods and Waters of the St. Croix Heritage Area to promote Chisago County as a national tourism destination

10. ADVOCACY

- a. Provide support for many state, county, and city projects such as Highway 8 expansion, trail expansions, broadband, and housing developments

The HRA-EDA looks to build on these recent successes and unite its efforts behind a single strategic plan.

..... STRATEGIC PLAN 2021 – 2026

This strategic plan is the culmination of a planning process conducted in August and September 2020. The plan refreshed the county's vision and mission, provided new strategic directions, and established action steps and outcomes to advance the strategic directions.

VISION & MISSION

The following, newly formed, vision and mission statements reflect the purpose, intent, and long-term focus of the partnership:

VISION

We are a natural resource for economic growth.

MISSION

To foster a high quality of life and thriving communities in Chisago County by collaboratively providing resources for residents and businesses.

STRATEGIC DIRECTIONS

The following are the strategic directions of the HRA-EDA's vision and mission:

1. Positioning the county for continued business growth
2. Clarifying a countywide growth strategy
3. Developing affordable housing options
4. Coordinating broadband development

DEFINITION:

This strategic direction aims to strengthen economic development activity in Chisago County through ongoing core functions and the creation of a marketing plan that raises its profile of Chisago County. It sets the stage for more innovative strategies to promote the county and establishes metrics to track the success of these efforts.

ACTION STEPS:

1. Retain and grow business
 - a. Hold an SBDC day that explains what it is and what it does
 - b. Hold an open house or parade of properties on available commercial properties/land
 - c. Conduct business visits and coordinate results sharing from business retention, expansion, and attraction efforts across the county.
 - d. Develop a written business case for development in Chisago County and Minnesota including effective tax rate comparisons for different types of developments
2. Develop a targeted marketing plan incorporating business and housing development
 - a. Define target market(s)
 - b. Hold HRA-EDA Open House celebrating new branding and new website
 - c. Determine how to best use CGI video and other potential tools to tell the county's story
 - d. Explore ways to tell more success stories
 - e. Develop a sustainable tracking method for business change & growth
 - f. Develop a sustainable tracking method for business communications outreach, e.g. conduct drip campaigns with the targeted markets that sends content 7+ times a year

OUTCOMES:

1. The HRA-EDA tells its story and is heard and seen and known for who it is and what it is
2. Marketing plan is active
3. Increase in business expansion/attraction measurables
4. Low business land/building availability/ vacancy rate
5. Growing land/building inventory

STRATEGIC DIRECTION CLARIFYING COUNTYWIDE GROWTH STRATEGY

DEFINITION:

This strategic direction aims to coordinate a countywide strategy to support and educate local partners on steps they can take to grow the Chisago County economy. It creates a forum for ongoing shared ideas and moves county stakeholders toward shared economic development goals.

ACTION STEPS:

1. Define and gather relevant stakeholders
2. Determine how to create buy-in and a structure for ongoing collaboration
3. Determine what one thing the group can focus on to demonstrate success, e.g. broadband
4. Define and educate stakeholders on what it means to be development-ready, be ready for opportunities when they emerge, and make good, informed decisions for growth
5. Host a summit or large county-wide gathering that includes financial institutions to share and gather feedback

OUTCOMES:

1. Defined goals
2. Ongoing, centralized stakeholder communication with updated stats dashboard
3. Committed committee
4. Understanding how to continue to grow and gain/keep momentum

STRATEGIC DIRECTION DEVELOPING AFFORDABLE HOUSING OPTIONS

DEFINITION:

This strategic direction acknowledges the importance of affordable housing development for Chisago County's economic growth. It provides resources to local partners to help them develop affordable housing and supports population growth and retention of residents who commute.

ACTION STEPS:

1. Define and agree upon affordable housing
2. Adopt and fund a housing trust fund
3. Create educational program on the value of affordable housing as an economic development driver for county and city policy leaders
4. Revisit toolkit with all 10 cities to identify lots for development and build support for affordable housing goals or metrics
5. Creation or use of a tool that outlines costs of development and whether it will cash flow that includes state tax comparisons
6. Coordinate housing plan and identified lots for development with the targeted marketing plan

OUTCOMES:

1. On pace to develop the number of affordable (as defined by the HRA-EDA) units outlined in housing study by 2030
2. County has enough platted, serviced lots to meet demand
3. Implementation of toolkit recommendations at city and county level
4. Increased percentage of residents working in county
5. Shared understanding of value of affordable housing needs and opportunities in county

4 STRATEGIC DIRECTION COORDINATING BROADBAND DEVELOPMENT

DEFINITION:

This strategic direction aims to move Chisago County toward broadband availability for all residents. It builds on the county's past success to build the case for investment by townships and moves them toward applications for funding.

ACTION STEPS:

1. Continue to lobby for state/federal funding
2. Educate townships on value of and process for project funding, including cost-benefit analysis
3. Develop case studies/success stories/find broadband ambassadors to show value from successful places
4. Apply once per year to state Border to Border program

OUTCOMES:

1. 75% of land area served by 2026
2. Grants received to fund service extension
3. Increased availability of state and federal funding sources
4. Increased number of telecommuters (measured by commuter survey)
5. Feasibility studies completed for all townships

STRATEGIC PLANNING PROCESS

PRACTICAL VISION

On August 18, the HRA-EDA board and a group of community partners came together in a session to identify a practical vision. The complete vision and the ideas that went into its creation are available in the Appendix as 8.18.20 Strategy Session I Results.

Prior to the Chisago County HRA-EDA's first strategic planning session on August 18, 2020, Northspan surveyed all participants to obtain their feedback on the organization's mission, potential vision, work plan progress, and current reality. Thirteen of the participants responded to the survey. A document summarizing the survey process is available in the Appendix as Chisago HRA-EDA Survey Results Summary 8.18.20.

Northspan also conducted pre-planning and context setting work with HRA-EDA staff and obtained background information to present to stakeholders. This presentation included the survey results, background data on the county's economics, demographics, and housing market, and highlights on staff progress on the 2020 Work Plan. The complete document is available in the Appendix as Chisago County HRA-EDA SP Vision Session 8.18.20.

BLOCKS & STRATEGIC DIRECTIONS | STRATEGIC PLANNING IN-PERSON SESSION: SEPTEMBER 1, 2020

AGENDA

11:30AM: Welcome & Zooming In
11:35AM: Introductions
11:45AM: Blocks Workshop
1:15 PM: Strategic Directions Workshop
2:25 PM: Next Steps & Adjourn

On September 1, Northspan facilitated a strategic planning session with the HRA-EDA board and staff that focused on blocks that prevent the organization from reaching its vision and strategic directions to overcome those blocks and barriers.

BLOCKS

Participants identified five contradictions or blocks that they believed held back the HRA-EDA. These blocks are available in the appendix in the document titled 09.01.20 Strategy Planning Session 2A of 3 BLOCKS.

STRATEGIC DIRECTIONS

With the contradictions in mind, the participants then moved to identify four strategic directions that they believe will allow the HRA-EDA to overcome these blocks. These strategic directions are available in the appendix in the document titled 09.01.20 Strategy Planning Session 2B of 3 STRATEGIC DIRECTIONS.

ACCOMPLISHMENTS | STRATEGIC PLANNING IN-PERSON SESSION: SEPTEMBER 15, 2020

AGENDA

12:00NOON Welcome & Introductions
12:10PM Accomplishments Workshop
1:15PM Mission Workshop
2:00PM Next Steps & Adjourn

On September 15, Northspan facilitated a second workshop with the HRA-EDA board and staff. In this session, the board identified outcomes and accomplishments that could move the HRA-EDA toward its strategic directions and worked to develop a new mission statement.

ACCOMPLISHMENTS

The HRA-EDA defined their current reality, identified success indicators, and developed outcomes and accomplishments that will allow the organization to move from current reality to success. These accomplishments and the ideas that led to their creation are available in the appendix in the document titled 09.15.20 Strategy Planning Session 3 of 3 ACCOMPLISHMENTS.

MISSION

The HRA-EDA concluded its workshop by drafting potential new mission statements.

The survey results showed some dissatisfaction with the existing, two-part mission, which reads:

- “To improve the commercial and industrial tax base within the County with an emphasis on assisting existing businesses; and vigorously marketing the County to attract new business development.”

AND

- “To promote and maintain a high quality of life in the County by advancing private development and private investment through collaborative efforts.”

Northspan facilitators emphasized that a mission should be a factual, real-time description of what the organization does, and framed in a way that explains what an organization does, the way in which it does it, and the intended result of the actions.

HRA-EDA members drafted the following two potential mission statements:

Mission #1: Promote the county collaboratively for the city and townships and be a resource for business and housing growth and retention by advancing development and investing in infrastructure, business, and housing so that we can maintain a high quality of life and tax base for current and future residents.

Mission #2: Provide resources for residents and businesses allowing our communities to thrive, enabling a higher quality of life in Chisago County.

In its discussion of the statements, the HRA-EDA board recognized the value in a more straightforward mission statement and recognized that many of the elements in Mission #1 emerge in other portions of the strategic plan.

MERGED MISSION

To foster a high quality of life and thriving communities in Chisago County by collaboratively providing resources for residents and businesses.

Agreements for an Effective Meeting Space

- Remain on-camera at all times (except breaks).

- Remain available-to-be-on-mic. You can mute while others are speaking/presenting, but be ready to participate.

- Avoid distractions: turn other devices to airplane mode and minimize open windows on your computer.

- Feel free to raise your hand - on camera or using nonverbal tools in Zoom.

- Use the phrase "I'm complete..." to indicate when you are done speaking.

- Be mindful of your "airtime." We will occasionally call on people to ensure your voice is heard or create breathing room in the discussion. Consider this an invitation, not an obligation!

- Grab a squeeze ball or fidget toy to keep your hands occupied and avoid the urge to Always Be Clicking!

- Have grace with yourself and others. We're all figuring this out together!
How do you want to show up today? What's one intention you'd like to set for yourself?

As you enter into the virtual space, first, welcome!
Second, please open the chat pod and type in your name. We'll start the meeting with an introduction to some of the features in Zoom.

The image shows a Zoom meeting interface with a 3x3 grid of participants. The participants are: Angie Asa-Lovstad (top left), Jeremy Kautza (top middle), Irina Fursman (top right), Karie (middle left), Megan Jacobson (middle middle), and Flower (middle right). Below the grid, there are four large blue arrows pointing downwards, labeled 'MUTE', 'VIDEO', 'CUES', and 'CHAT'. To the right of the grid, there is a large blue arrow pointing right, labeled 'Chat Pod'. At the bottom of the screen, there is a toolbar with icons for Unmute, Stop Video, Invite, Participants (5), Share Screen, Chat, Record, Reactions, and a red 'Leave Meeting' button.

The image shows the Zoom Participants and Chat Pod panels. The Participants panel (top) lists 7 participants: Jeremy Kautza (Co-host, me), Angie Asa-Lovstad (Host), Irina Fursman (Co-host), and Flower. Below the list are icons for 'yes', 'no', 'go slower', 'go faster', and 'more'. The Chat Pod panel (bottom) shows a message from Angie Asa-Lovstad to Everyone: 'Let's populate the login question here and he screen shot it'. Below this is a message from Irina Fursman to Everyone: 'SURE! TYPE YOUR NAME HERE'. At the bottom of the Chat Pod, there is a 'To: Everyone' dropdown and a 'Type message here...' input field.

CHISAGO COUNTY HRA-EDA STRATEGIC PLANNING SURVEY

Prior to the Chisago County HRA-EDA's first strategic planning session on August 18, 2020, Northspan surveyed all participants to obtain their feedback on the organization's mission, potential vision, work plan progress, and current reality. Thirteen of the participants responded to the survey, and this document presents the results of the surveys.

RESPONDENTS

The survey went out to a variety of stakeholders, including both HRA-EDA staff members, all HRA-EDA board members, city and township staff, city and township elected officials, and representatives of the business and education communities. Responses came from five of the different sectors, with strong participation from HRA-EDA staff and board members.

ANSWER CHOICES	RESPONSES
Staff member	15.38%	2
Board member	38.46%	5
City/township staff	23.08%	3
City/township elected official	7.69%	1

The Chisago County HRA-EDA's mission currently reads:

- "To improve the commercial and industrial tax base within the County with an emphasis on assisting existing businesses; and vigorously marketing the County to attract new business development."

AND

- "To promote and maintain a high quality of life in the County by advancing private development and private investment through collaborative efforts with local units of government and other interested organizations in Chisago County."

The survey asked two questions regarding this two-part mission:

Is it still relevant?

Yes: 9 (69%)

No: 4 (31%)

Is it appropriate to have a 2-part mission statement?

Yes: 8 (62%)

No: 5 (38%)

While respondents were generally supportive of the mission, enough people had some concerns with the existing statement that Northspan believes it is worth revisiting in the upcoming sessions with the HRA-EDA board. This will provide the HRA-EDA with an opportunity to reconsider its existing mission and update it as necessary.

VISION

The Chisago County HRA-EDA currently does not have a vision. To facilitate the development of one, Northspan asked two questions that sought out a future-thinking, aspirational conception of its work. These results help to frame the strategic planning sessions and will provide additional context as the board works to finalize a new vision.

What are your aspirations for the HRA-EDA?

- Collaboration and public-private partnerships (4)
- Marketing work leads to added jobs and filled industrial parks (4)
- Strengthen quality of life for current and new residents (4)
- Holistic view of economic development/managed growth and transition (2)
- Balance business and housing activity (2)

What would happen if our aspirations came true?

- Chisago County becomes a destination for new residents (4)
- County is more unified behind a long-term vision based on its unique strengths (3)
- Businesses grow; goods and services available locally (3)
- More holistic economic development
- Better economic climate
- Taxes stabilize
- People know what the HRA-EDA is and does
- More public-private partnerships

WORK PLAN PROGRESS

The Chisago County HRA-EDA's 2020 work plan features five major goals with action steps under each one. The survey asked respondents to assess progress on each action step to date and indicate whether they believed the task was complete, needed more work, or no longer relevant. Many of the action steps are ongoing tasks with no clear end point, and the responses reflected the continual nature of this work. Rarely did respondents claim a piece of the work plan was no longer relevant, while a handful of more discrete tasks are now complete. Otherwise, most of the work remained in progress.

Goal: Take a targeted, proactive approach to business recruitment based on the county's advantages.

SWOT ANALYSIS

The survey asked respondents to assess the strengths and weaknesses of the HRA-EDA and the outside opportunities and threats that it has or may have. Northspan grouped these responses into similar categories and ranked them in the table below based on the number of times they appeared.

Overall, the results showed confidence in existing staff and efforts to gather stakeholders to build a vision for the future and recognized Chisago County's considerable economic development assets, while also making a case for greater communication, capacity in certain areas, and plans to cope with changing demographics and economic and political forces beyond the immediate control of the HRA-EDA.

Date: January 6, 2023

Presented to: EDA Members

Presented by: Robb Linwood, City Administrator

Department: Administration

Reference: Downtown Plan/Study Discussion

Method: New Business

Background Information:

During the EDA's 2022 work plan it was discussed that there was not a small area plan or Downtown Study plan currently and could be a goal for the EDA and City to work towards. Small-town community downtown areas are in a renaissance. Downtowns serve as both vital economic engines for a local economy and also gathering places to celebrate together.

Although the Downtown area could be considered larger area encompassing a larger area of the downtown core of Wyoming. A Small Area Plan study area is much smaller that could focus on an area around east Viking and Hwy 61. Small Area Plans specifically explore issues, opportunities and solutions within a confined geographic area that has a cohesive set of characteristics. The long-term success of Downtown depends heavily on a strong and well-designed core. It is this area where the integration of commerce, residential living, community activity – and parking – need to fit together like puzzle pieces.

I have supplied a draft downtown RFP for the EDA's review final review. I have also supplied the current zoning map of the downtown area and an aerial of the area for discussion on defining what parts of Wyoming should be included in the study. This is the final draft and with the approval of the EDA the RFP will go out and all submissions from consultants will be due no later than February 15, 2022. I have begun inquiring with partner agencies regarding financial assistance for the study.

PREPARATION OF A DOWNTOWN PLAN WYOMING ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY WYOMING, MINNESOTA

PURPOSE

The Wyoming Economic Development Authority seeks the services of a qualified multi-discipline consultant or consultant team who will be responsible for providing services that result in a downtown master plan. The selected consultant team will have considerable experience in developing downtown plans, particularly for communities of a size and standing similar to Wyoming, and possess significant urban planning, civil engineering and public engagement capabilities. The consultant team should also possess a depth of experience in community and economic development as well as analysis of market conditions.

The consultant will develop and lead a planning process that features active public participation to combine local knowledge and leadership with professional expertise and guidance. The Wyoming EDA's intent is to provide its residents, corporate citizens and new investors with a downtown plan that articulates a vision for the short and long-term improvements to the public and private realm that foster additional investment and enhances downtown Wyoming as a more livable, walkable and thriving urban center.

BACKGROUND

The City of Wyoming has an impressive community formed by the railroad. It has varying levels of park development with a direct connection to the Sunrise Prairie Regional Trail. Its location is ideal for many families who prefer a rural character and small town feel with an abundance of natural resources, yet within an easy drive to the Minneapolis metro area.

The City of Wyoming is located in Chisago County, north of the Minneapolis metro region. It is located directly along Interstate 35, allowing for a direct connection to the metro for commuting. The convenient access and its location that is currently more rural with an abundance of natural spaces makes it an appealing location for many residents.

According to the 2020 United States Census Bureau, the current population of Wyoming is 8,309 while ESRI data suggests it is currently at 8,845 for 2021. The population in Wyoming since the 2010 census has grown an average of 6.42% with an average growth of slightly less than 1% yearly. The average household income in Wyoming is $97,474, the median age is 42.4 years and 99.32% of the population is white with 0.55% two or more races, and 0.13% Native American (World Population Review).

This shows that the vast majority of the population consists of families with kids and approximately 18% of the population falling in the senior category. There are many residential areas in Wyoming that contain large lots with room for private playground equipment, basketball hoops and more than adequate space for recreating at home. However, there are also areas with higher densities and lower incomes or aging populations that were considered during the planning process.

In addition to its business, industrial and tourism assets, the City of Wyoming is the home to the Polaris R&D Facility, Rosenbauer America, Fairview M Health Medical Regional Facility and Hallberg Marine. and a number of amenities such as a visual arts center, a regional library, trails, seventeen parks, and one elementary school.

The City Comprehensive Plan, updated in 2022, reflects the community's continued desire to strengthen the downtown as the heart of the community.

The Wyoming EDA is seeking proposals from qualified professionals to aid them in the development of an updated downtown master plan that creates a defined vision for the downtown and identifies a specific plan of action directed towards attainment of that vision

PROJECT SCHEDULE

The Wyoming Economic Development Authority is on a schedule for consultant selection that should culminate in formal action to hire a consultant in beginning of 2023. The process to develop the Downtown Plan should begin in earnest shortly thereafter. Intermediate milestones in the development of the Downtown Plan will be established after the successful consultant is selected. The project should be finalized no later than October of 2023

MINIMUM PUBLIC PARTICIPATION

Several stakeholder groups should be given the opportunity to participate in the process of developing the Downtown Plan. Such groups include:

- ✓ The public at large
- ✓ The Wyoming Economic Development Authority
- ✓ All property owners within the plan area
- ✓ All residents within the plan area
- ✓ All business owners renting/leasing property within the plan area
- ✓ City of Wyoming Community Development Department Staff
- ✓ Other City Departments as necessary and appropriate, such as:
 - Administration
 - Planning and Zoning
 - Engineering

The public participation process proposed must promote meaningful participation that educates, offers participants opportunities to discuss and resolve issues, and creates a sense of ownership of the plan by the participants.

The consultant's role in the public participation process, at a minimum, will include:

- ✓ Organizing and scheduling meetings – with aid provided by the Community Development Department.
- ✓ Conducting/facilitating meetings/visioning sessions
- ✓ Providing technical expertise/advice
- ✓ Recording public comments
- ✓ Identifying areas of consensus
- ✓ Translating the input received during the process into alternative visions
- ✓ Presentation of preliminary plan concepts to key stakeholders
- ✓ Presentation of final plan concepts to key stakeholders

The consultants suggested approach towards public participation should be included within the work plan, required under the proposal contents section. The consultant and the Wyoming EDA will develop the precise method of optimizing public participation jointly after consultant selection, and early in the project schedule.

REQUIRED PROJECT DELIVERABLES

Hard copies of the final "Downtown Plan" document containing text and graphics should be in 8 ½" x 11" format. Larger graphics in the report could be folded 11" x 17" sheets. Twenty-five (25) copies of the final plan are required.

Two electronic copies of the downtown plan document, including graphics, shall be provided. One copy shall be provided in a MS Word format and the other shall be provided in an Adobe Acrobat (PDF) format.

DESIRED PROJECT OUTCOMES/STATEMENT OF WORK

The project consultant will prepare a comprehensive downtown plan that translates the priorities of the community into specific, attainable, development and redevelopment goals for the downtown that focus on establishing/strengthening the downtown as the physical and social heart of the community. The downtown plan will go beyond the concept stage to create redevelopment strategies tailored to the specific needs and conditions in Wyoming.

At a minimum, the plan development will include an assessment and specific recommendations in the following areas. Other deliverables may be added, at the discretion of the Wyoming EDA, or by recommendation of the consulting firm.

REVIEW OF CURRENT PLANS

- The planning process should involve stakeholders in gaining an understanding of previous planning, synthesizing and joining the pertinent aspects of past plans to maintain continuity of vision without constricting new ideas and integrating new development influences and community desires. This review of previous planning shall include, but not be limited to:
 - Incorporate into the planning process applicable guidance provide by the City Comprehensive Plan 2022
 - City of Wyoming Economic Development Strategic Plan 2017
 - Chisago County Housing Study, Maxfield 2018
 - City of Wyoming Parks, Open Space and Trail System Plan 2022

LAND USE

- With stakeholder involvement, assess the assets and liabilities of the downtown to identify the highest opportunity places to create and enhance the network of destinations in the downtown.
- Map current land uses in the downtown and immediate surrounding area and consider unique aspects of downtown sub-areas or districts in the planning process.

- Inventory commercial and retail space vacancy levels and underutilization.
- Identify and prioritize specific sites for development and redevelopment and their preferred uses or adaptive reuses.
- Inventory the status and quality of transportation and circulation systems including automobile parking, pedestrian routes, and bicycle parking
- Identify cultural, recreational and institutional assets, such as library, art galleries, public art, parks, trails and government services and consider how they can be enhanced to better support the downtown as a community gathering space/destination.
- Determine whether and how existing land uses or physical characteristics help or hinder economic development efforts i.e.; parking lot locations, vacant parcels, railroad corridor, variety of businesses, etc.

TRANSPORTATION

- Through the planning process, embrace the perception of streets not only as conduits for automobiles but also, as places that are an opportunity to add value to the community by enhancing economic productivity and social engagement.
- Equitably consider all modes of mobility in downtown transportation planning.
- Consider non-traffic solutions to traffic problems, such as increasing mixed-use development and high density housing opportunities in and near the downtown.
- Conduct field surveys to record the amount and location of on and off street parking in the downtown, calculate the parking requirements for existing and future land uses, identify deficiencies, and define short and long-term strategies for improvements to downtown parking, including accommodation of residential and hospitality uses that require longer term parking.
- Assess the pedestrians ease in crossing streets and provide recommendations for improvements that do not conflict with other design standards.

URBAN DESIGN IMPROVMENTS

- Affirm the identity of core downtown streets and critical street intersections.
- Catalog existing sidewalk and pathway conditions, and identify important linkages within and connecting to the downtown.
- Identify existing landscaping in the downtown and create a plan to maintain trees and plantings as part of the urban infrastructure.
- Review the existing streetscape elements (vintage lighting, street furnishings, plantings, and sidewalk and street pavement treatments) of the downtown and consider revisions to and/or expansions of it.
- Identify public space opportunities in the downtown and examine their full multi-use potential as a means to create a sense of place and attract and bring people together.
- Consider improvements to the plan/programs for building façade improvement in the downtown.

- Identify priorities for the improvement of on and off street public parking.
- Identify potential infill and new development opportunities in the downtown, prioritize those opportunities, and identify strategies for their implementation.
- Review design guidelines created by the Wyoming Economic Development Authority and consider whether similar design guidelines should be established as a universal requirement for the downtown.

MARKET ASSESSMENT, ECONOMIC NICHE AND DEVELOPMENT STRATEGIES

- Define the downtown's economic niche to inform strategies for marketing, promotion and design/appearance.
- Provide recommendations for how the downtown can better serve these categories of users.
- Identify business categories that may be missing from the downtown that would serve the interests of the identified categories of visitor users and local users.

IMPLEMENTATION STRATEGIES

- Define strategies, including financing options, for implementation of all aspects of a downtown plan that takes into consideration: need, feasibility, and consistency with the downtown vision.
- Assess the organizational capacity of community stakeholders to play a role in implementation.
- Strategies will identify sub-tasks and timelines where appropriate and assign roles and responsibilities for community stakeholders.

PROPOSAL CONTENTS

Wyoming, MN 55092

Dear Robb,

Please accept this as an official request to join the EDA (Economic Development Authority) for the city of Wyoming Minnesota as representative for Polaris Industries Inc.

I have been with Polaris for over 20 years and worked in multiple leadership capacities over this time. These include new product development/engineering, operations, sales, marketing, general management, and in the past 10 years it has been in an international capacity. In my new role, Director of Engineering for Long Term Strategic Initiatives, I am being charged with improving our community relations in places we have facilities. My experience and passion will bring a unique perspective to the team and I am excited for this opportunity to partner.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, reading "Eric P. Nault". The signature is fluid and cursive, with the first name "Eric" and last name "Nault" clearly legible.

Background Information:

The Wyoming EDA annually makes a contribution to the Initiative Foundation. For 2022 the Initiative foundation has made a funding request of $250.00

Recommendation: To contribute $250.00 to the Initiative Foundation for 2023

June 5, 2022

Robb Linwood, City Administrator
City of Wyoming
PO Box 188
Wyoming, MN 55092-0188

Dear Mayor Iverson, City Council and Mr. Linwood,

For 36 years, the Initiative Foundation has focused on building strong local economies, vibrant communities, and a lasting culture of generosity in Central Minnesota. Our grant-making, lending, and programmatic activities support for-profit and nonprofit business growth, empower new entrepreneurs, address workforce shortages, and increase access to quality childcare for the region's workforce.

In Chisago County, we have provided a total of $1,885,981 in grants to support nonprofit organizations and local government projects, as well as $1,998,950 in business loans to secure 423 quality jobs. The Foundation's community and economic development services continue to provide essential resources and supports for local cities, and across Central Minnesota.

Alongside our economic and community development work, we continue to support the region's recovery from the COVID-19 pandemic, responding to ongoing and emerging needs. In 2021, the Foundation secured and then invested into Central Minnesota $12,600,000 in emergency relief and recovery funds, supporting businesses, nonprofits, childcare providers, and local communities. This funding was sourced from organizations outside of Central Minnesota, and through partnerships with the Minnesota Department of Employment and Economic Development and the Minnesota Department of Education. Much of relief and recovery funding secured in 2021 will continue to be deployed throughout 2022.

Financial contributions from cities and counties increase our capacity to support economic and community development projects. Local contributions also position us to leverage additional resources from sources outside Central Minnesota, generating a substantial return on the investment. For every dollar we raise locally, we reinvest an average of $3.98 back to the communities we serve in the form of grants, loans, and scholarships.

We respectfully request that you consider allocating $250 to the Initiative Foundation in your 2023 budget.

Please contact us if you have any questions or to request a presentation. We sincerely appreciate your past investment and look forward to your continued support in 2023.

We can present in person or facilitate an online option. If possible, after your budget for 2023 is finalized, please let us know your decision by signing and returning the enclosed confirmation form. Thank you for your consideration!

All the best,

Matt Varilek
President

→ A thriving and beautiful downtown increases business attraction and hometown pride. Partially funded by an Initiative Foundation grant, the Lindstrom Economic Development Authority (EDA) partnered with a design firm to study downtown parking and housing; establish connections to lakes and trails; address pedestrian safety; and update the stormwater system. The goal of the project was to transition to a safe, welcoming and beautiful downtown.

→ For those experiencing homelessness, entering the workforce can take a few extra steps. Rise, Inc., provides solutions to challenges for anyone who faces barriers to employment. Visit rise.org to learn how this Initiative Foundation- and Partner Fund-supported organization unlocks potential and opens doors to success for people with disabilities and other challenges.

→ Viking Vittles, coordinated by Trinity Lutheran Church in North Branch, is tackling local food insecurity by distributing take-home food to North Branch-area students for weekends and summer months. With grant support from the Initiative Foundation, an average of 125 backpacks containing two breakfasts, lunch and snack items were distributed weekly during summer 2020. A Care Closet was added for kids to shop for food and other essential items to bring home.

Reference: Request for attendance for EDAM Conference

Method: New Business

Background Information:

The Wyoming EDA is a member of the Economic Development Association of Minnesota. The winter conference is at the end of January on the 26th and 27th in Minneapolis, MN. EDAM is a professional association of individuals and organizations throughout the state of Minnesota who share this mission. We pursue our mission by providing economic development professionals a forum for exchanging information and staying abreast of current economic development strategies and practices and by providing them with valuable networking and educational opportunities. EDAM members are leading economic developers in the state of Minnesota. EDAM consults with the state on public policy issues related to economic development, and helps continually define and improve the profession.

The conferences offer speakers, trainings, breakout sessions and opportunities for networking. I feel that there is significant value to the city with my attendance to remain familiar with current issues and key takeaways to help the city of Wyoming in its economic development efforts. The cost of the training is $350.00 for both days and the special group rate for lodging is $165.00. I would ask the EDA for approval of the event not to exceed $550 for the event, lodging and pertinent lodging taxes.

Recommendation: To approve the attendance of City Administrator Linwood to the 2023 EDAM Winter Conference.
